YOUTH, 17, FOUND DEAD TODAY ON ORRTANNA ROAD

State police of the Gettysburg substation today sought a hit and run driver whose car was believed to have struck and killed John Elwood Chapman, 17, of Orrtanna R. 1, on the Orrtanna-Cashtown Rd. a half mile south of Cashtown early this morning.

Chapman's body was found lying at the side of the highway at 4:45 a.m. by Ivan Shultz, Orrtanna, a truck driver employed by Rice, Treu and Rice, Biglerville, as Shultz was on his way to work.

Shultz drove to Cashtown and returned with Donald Kuhn, and then called state police. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, was also notified.

The body was removed to the Allison Funeral Home, Fairfield. Dr. Crist said Chapman suffered a compound fracture of the skull and a fractured hip.

Find Shoe In Ditch
According to the authorities, Chapman's body was found on the west side of the highway, between 50 and 100 feet, it was believed, from the spot where he was struck. They said indication were that he had been walking on the east side. One shoe was found about 12 feet from the body, in a ditch.

Chapman was a son of Curtis and Effie McDannell Chapman. Besides his parents, he leaves six brothers and sisters, Melvin Chapman, Philadelphia; Ray Chapman, Spring City, Pa.; Floyd Chapman, at home; Mrs. Melvin Wentz, Hanover, and Kenneth and Dean Chapman, at home.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Allison Funeral Home, a lay brother of the deceased, and Tract Society of officiating. Interment in Fiohrs Church cemetery.

HANOVER MAN IS ELECTROCUTED POLISHING CAR

A 25-year-old Hanover man was electrocuted Saturday at 1:30 p.m. while polishing an automobile with an electric buffer.

Harold James Little, husband of Anna Topper Little, 874 1/2 York St., Hanover, died in the private garage at the rear of his home about five minutes after the buffer cut through the extension cord to which it was attached. The cord, wrapped around Little's wrist several times, became short circuited and sent the full 110 volts through his body. Wearing canvas shoes, Little was standing on the round at the time he received the shock.

With Little when he died were his wife, who had been in the back yard when she heard his cries, and Lloyd Topper, his brother-in-law, owner of the car which was being polished. He was helping Little polish the auto at the time.

Resuscitation Efforts Fail
Stewart Berwager and Robert Clair, Hanover, vainly attempted for 20 minutes to revive the man by the use of artificial respiration. The Hanover Fire Company ambulance was summoned and its resuscitator used to no avail.

Coroner Lester J. Sell said death was "due to an electric shock caused by a cut in an extension cord attached to an electric polishing buffer."

The victim was the son of Walter W. and Virgie K. (Meckley) Little, who own a farm on York St., extended, Hanover. They were on a week-end trip to Scranton when notified of the accident.

Surviving besides his wife and parents are a brother, Robert David Little, York; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Ellen K. Little, McSherrystown, and his maternal grandfather, Pius Meckley, Hanover R. 3.

A veteran of World War II, Little was employed as a draftsman at Letterkenny depot, Chambersburg. He also taught music for Pratt's studio, Hanover.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hanover.

Funeral services Tuesday at 2 p.m. from Frederick Bucher, Funeral Home, Hanover. Rev. Paul Levi Foulk, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will officiate. Interment in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Hanover.

Warner Hospital Staff Praised

The Warner Hospital medical and nursing staffs, and other employees, were highly praised by a recent patient who asked The Times to publicly express his grateful appreciation.

"During my 36 days at the Warner Hospital, where I was treated after suffering two heart attacks, I received the most kindly and considerate treatment any patient could possibly expect," said Harvey Bollinger, 74, of 20 North Washington St.

"Everything was done for my comfort by the doctors and the nurses. My recovery seemed to be their chief concern. Even the domestic employees were most kind and pleasant. I am sure I could not have been in safer hands than those at the Warner Hospital. Gettysburg and Adams County can well proud and grateful to have such a splendid institution," Mr. Bollinger added.

MARC CONNOLLY CONFERS HERE ON LINCOLN SCRIPT

How long does it take a lady in hoop skirts to walk up a flight of six steps?

How long will it take "President Lincoln" to walk to the platform in the National Cemetery, where he will deliver his Gettysburg Address, after he dismounts from his horse?

What is the distance from the Baltimore St. entrance to the cemetery to the Taneytown Rd. gate and from there to the point where the stand will be erected?

These and many more were questions Marc Connolly, well-known author and playwright, wanted answered Saturday on his flying visit to Gettysburg as he went over the ground preparatory to writing the script for "Mr. Lincoln Goes to Gettysburg."

Stresses Timing
The re-enactment of Lincoln's visit here in 1863 will be presented by the Western Maryland Railway Co. on October 18. Connolly flew to Harrisburg early Saturday, was driven to Gettysburg by automobile, and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. spent one of busiest days in his career.

Authenticity and timing were two of the major points stressed. Dozens

MORE THAN 500 ARE REGISTERED IN FINAL HOURS

Registration of new voters was completed at the county court house at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night after what one registrar described as "the busiest night I ever had."

More than 500 jammed the county commissioners' office on the final day to register before the books were closed on the list of voters until after the November election.

Of the group, 368 were new registrants; about 70 were persons who wished to change their address prior to the election, and another 50 were persons who had been previously registered, but had forgotten that fact.

Of those registered Saturday 234 were Republicans, 145 Democrats and seven non-partisan. The final figures will show the county having the greatest number registered in its history, election officials said.

2,492 Have Registered
Including Saturday's total, the number of registrants listed for the county is 19,458. That figure is expected to be lowered slightly, however, when the clerks have the time to compare the new registrations with the regular list of registered voters. They base their opinion, on past experience, that a number, possibly 100, of the newly registered voters will be found to have been duplicates—persons who had registered previously and, having forgotten that fact, re-registered without the clerks immediately noting it.

The new registration figures show an increase of 2,492 over the 16,966 registered for the primary election this past spring. It also shows an increase in the Republican registration majority. There are now 3,237 more Republicans than Democrats in the county, as compared to 2,768 this past spring. There are now 11-

MERCURY HITS 95 SATURDAY ON HOT WEEK END

The Gettysburg weatherman wrote some new September heat records into his books over the week end but the month's record high of 100 degrees set on September 8, 1939, was not threatened.

The high for the week end was 95 degrees on Saturday. Friday's high was 92 and Sunday's was 93. Clouds today brought an end to the three-day heat wave with showers expected.

Friday's high of 92 was the second above-90 reading on record here on that date. The other was a 96 on September 12, 1925.

Nights Cooled Off
Saturday's 95 set a new high mark for that date in local weather records. The previous high on September 13 was a 94 in 1931 and the most recent 90-degree weather on that date came in 1948 with a reading of 91 degrees. Sunday's 93 was the hottest September 14 since 1931 when the high was 94.

There was not weather in September last year, the high being a 93 on September 1. Local records show that most Septembers in Gettysburg have seen 90-degree weather and that early October has found the mercury in the low 90's on several occasions in the last 50 years.

While the last three days have been hot, nights have been cool and the weather of the last few days has been unusual for its wide spreads in temperatures. After Saturday's high of 95, the mercury tumbled to a low of 59 degrees Sunday morning, a 36-degree drop.

POLICE CATCH YOUNG DRIVER

An automobile race over four miles of dirt roads near Abbottstown, between a state police squad car and an auto operated by an Abbottstown R. 1 youth, ended as the youth's car hit a ditch and rolled on its side Sunday afternoon.

The driver, Marlin E. Baker, 17, and a passenger, John Jacobs, 18, of Abbottstown R. 1, escaped injury. Baker paid $42 in fines and costs before Paradise Twp. Justice of the Peace Sylvia J. Craumer on charges of reckless driving and failure to comply with a state police order to halt.

State Trooper Stanley Edmonds reported the case developed as Baker's car, a 1949 model coupe, passed his police car in Abbottstown with the muffler making considerable noise.

Edmonds said he followed the car on Lincoln Highway but that Baker ignored an order to halt and turned off the highway to a series of dirt roads. The trooper said his speedometer read 75 miles an hour as he followed Baker.

Baker then returned to the Lincoln Highway and entered a road adjacent to Hanover Country Club (Continued on Page 2)

Here And There News Collected At Random

Today is the 35th anniversary of the founding of the American Junior Red Cross. On Sept. 15, 1917, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States and concurrently President of the American National Red Cross, proclaimed the expansion of the American Red Cross to include a junior membership to be known as the American Junior Red Cross. Its programs were to be carried on under the guidance of chapters and under the direction of teachers in the schools of this country.

In President Wilson's original proclamation he said: "Our Junior Red Cross will bring to you opportunities of service to your community and to other communities all over the world and guide your service with high and religious ideals. It will teach you how to save in order that suffering children elsewhere may have the chance to live. It will teach you how to prepare some of the supplies which wounded soldiers and homeless families lack, and by doing those kind things you will learn to be the future good citizens of this great country."

HOLY NAME UNIT PLANS "SMOKER" ON OCTOBER 12

Plans for a "smoker" October 12 were outlined Sunday evening at a meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church held in the Parochial school basement.

The evening social meeting will replace the usual "Communism Breakfast" held by the organization. Decision to change from a morning program to an evening meeting with refreshments and a speaker was made because a number of the members living in the country stressed the difficulty of getting their families to church when a morning breakfast program is held.

October 12 was set as the date, because it is the time of the regular reception of Communion by the members of the society as a group. George Schachle, grand knight of the local Knights of Columbus, said at the meeting the local K of C had postponed its annual Columbus Day celebration to October 19 in anticipation of the regular Holy Name program in October.

SAYS "SAUCER" WAS LIKE COMET

The "Flying Saucer" reported from Baltimore, Hagerstown, Harrisburg, York and other nearby cities at 8 o'clock last Friday night, appeared to be a meteor when seen in the Seven Stars district, according to a report received today.

Thomas Oyler, Gettysburg R. 3, a past president of the state Cherry Growers Association, saw the object at 8:10 o'clock Friday night as he left his fruit stand at Seven Stars.

"The meteor," Oyler said, appeared low, but he added that with objects in the sky, without knowledge of their actual size no estimate can be made of height.

He added that "the object seemed to be moving very slow in comparison with the speed of meteors, but again, without knowledge of height and size, no judgment can be made of speed."

During the "four or five seconds" in which the object appeared in sight, it seemed to be orange colored and glowing, and seemed to be sacking off small portions of itself which followed more slowly after the larger body. Since the object seemed to be headed toward the earth in the Cashtown - Fairfield area, Oyler drove through that section, but failed to discover any evidence of the meteor.

He was hoping to hear from other persons who may have seen the object, before making a report of it to the amateur astronomers association.

THREE CHARGED WITH DRIVING WHILE DRINKING

Three motorists were in the Adams County jail this morning awaiting hearings on charges of operating their automobiles while under the influence of intoxicants.

Philip Roche, 73, of South Mountain, was arrested by state police of the Gettysburg substation Sunday night after his automobile was alleged to have sideswiped two other cars on the Emmitsburg-Waynesboro Rd. five miles west of Zora.

E. H. Bellew, 64, of Abbottstown, was charged by state police with drunken driving on the Lincoln Highway at 1:55 a.m. today. He was arrested in Abbottstown. State police charged Robert W. Mohn, 27, of Waynesboro, with drunken driving at 10:15 p.m. Sunday on the same road where Roche was arrested earlier.

$550 In Damages

Police said the Roche car was traveling west on Route 16, and sideswiped the automobiles of Lawrence L. Hefner, 40, of Pikesville, Md. and Ray H. Baker, 63, of Taneytown R. 1, both traveling east. No one was injured. Damage to the Roche car was estimated at $150; to the Hefner car at $200 and to the Baker car at $200.

Bellew and Mohn were not involved in accidents, police said.

Three other week-end accidents were investigated by state police. An automobile operated by Howard L. Miller, 30, of Gettysburg R. 4, ran into the rear of a car driven by Charles E. Hartlaub, 22, of York, on the Lincoln Highway two miles east of Gettysburg at 11:40 p.m. Saturday, police said.

Miller received a head laceration, and Miss Dora Scott, 18, Gettysburg R. 5, riding in the Hartlaub car, suffered from shock. Both cars were traveling west. Police estimated damage to the Miller car at $250 and to the Hartlaub car at $450.

Snyder, and her companion, George M. Hatch, Winterport, Va., was fined $25 and costs for permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his truck.

Both arrests were made by borough police as the woman drove around Lincoln Square, headed for Baltimore, police said.

Johnnie Oliver, Lake Wales, Fla., arrested at 2:45 a.m. Sunday on a reckless driving charge by state police of the Gettysburg substation, paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice Snyder.

Another woman driver got in trouble with borough police when she drove out of Breckenridge St. onto S. Washington St. and almost ran into the police early Saturday morning. Police filed charges of reckless driving and operating without a license against Letha Ambush, Frederick, Md., today with Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. She paid $10 and costs on each charge.

Bernard Ambush, Frederick, paid a fine of $25 and costs for permitting an unlicensed operator to drive his car.

A large number of visitors were from the Dakotas and other western states from which no visitors have been registered for several months.

Yankees Blast 9 More MIGs In Two Battles

SEOUL, Korea (P) — U. S. Sabre jet pilots today reported they shot down nine Russian-made MIG15 jets, probably destroyed another and damaged two in air battles over North Korea.

The Air Force also announced that Allied fighter-bombers hurled a crushing aerial blow at the Red industrial complex at Sinuiju, near the Manchurian border. Targets included an oxygen plant, an alcohol distillery and a rope factory.

The jet battle pitted an unannounced number of Sabres against more than 80 MIGs.

40 MIGs Downed

The new figures raise the Fifth Air Force's reported total of MIGs destroyed in September to 40—with four claims pending. The record for a month is 44, set last April.

The fighter-bomber attack was made within sight of the big Red airfields at Antung, just across the Yalu River from Sinuiju. The Air Force said it drew hordes of Communist interceptors into action.

Twenty-four F84 Thunderjets hit Sinuiju in mid-afternoon to get the assault underway. They dropped tons of high explosives and fired thousands of machinegun bullets into the targets.

WRECKAGE OF PLANE FOUND; THREE INJURED

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (P)—Wreckage of an airplane missing yesterday from a flight from Clearfield to New Castle was found today along Coudersport Pike in Clinton County, about 38 miles west of Jersey Shore.

Three men were injured. Doctors, nurses and ambulances were rushed from nearby Jersey Shore.

One of the five passengers on the plane—Elroy Adams, 34, a student pilot—phoned his wife in Clearfield to say he and their son, Jack, 6, are safe.

Walked To Phone
Mrs. Adams gave this version of what her husband told her:
He and the boy walked several miles from the plane until they found a telephone.

The injured men were R. D. Henwood, 42, of Philadelphia, the pilot and a licensed flying instructor, leg injuries; Henwood's brother-in-law, Thomas Sleight, 47, also of Philadelphia, R. D., rib injuries, and Francis Fleming, 36, of Clearfield, arm injuries.

Sought By CAP
Mrs. Adams said her husband did not indicate how seriously his companions were hurt and that he spoke of no injuries to himself or the boy.

The phone call to Mrs. Adams came about 10 a. m. (EST) while the Civil Air Patrol, of which Henwood and Adams are both members, was organizing a widespread land and air search for the missing craft.

It had taken off for New Castle at 5 p. m. yesterday, with 28 gallons of gasoline, not enough to make a round trip.

TO TAKE SURVEY ON FEPC ISSUE

HARRISBURG (P)—The Pennsylvania Council of Churches is going to ask legislative candidates to stand up and be counted on the controversial fair employment practices issue in advance of the Nov. 4 General Election.

The unprecedented action was disclosed today by the Rev. Jesse Reber, acting general secretary of the council, which represents 90 per cent of the Protestant churches in Pennsylvania.

"Until now, the council has favored establishment of a Fair Employment Practices Commission, but has been passive about it," he told a newsman. "I won't say we're going to be militant but there's a moral obligation to be filled here."

Efforts to ban job discrimination because of race, creed, color or national origin have failed repeatedly in the Legislature.

Dr. Reber said candidates for state senators and assemblymen from both parties will be asked in a questionnaire to state whether they will vote for FEPC. The answers—or refusals to do so—will be published, he said.

"We're not getting into politics. This is simply a matter of keeping our membership informed."

NEW YORK (P)—An agreement giving 50,000 of the General Electric Co.'s workers a wage increase of 7 1/2 to 13 cents an hour has been reached by negotiators for the company and the United Electrical Workers Union (UE).

The proposed contract is subject to ratification by the union's GE conference board and by affected locals, said Joseph Dermody, UE international representative. The board will meet this week.

Contract negotiations were to resume here today between GE and the independent UE's rival, the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, which represents about 70,000 of the company's workers in many states. The GE-UE contract expires at midnight tonight.

The company, which announced the pay boost amounts to 5.76 per cent and would be effective today if approved by the Wage Stabilization Board.

UE president James B. Carey has said strike action by his union was possible. But Lemuel R. Boulware, GE vice president in charge of employee relations, said as recently as Sept. 8 that GE and the IUE were more or less in agreement in wage negotiations.

YANKEES SEEM SURE TO TAKE 4TH PENNANT; BEAT TRIBE 7-1

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The New York Yankees appear to have their fourth successive pennant wrapped up. The fast-fading Brooklyn Dodgers are ready to be taken but the New York Giants haven't the guns with which to do it.

That was the picture today following Sunday's activities which saw the Yankees win "the big one" from the Indians in Cleveland and the Giants miss a grand opportunity to cut deeper into the Dodger lead.

With southpaw Eddie Lopat and right-hander Allie Reynolds collaborating in fine style, the Yankees whipped the Indians, 7-1, to increase their American League lead over the Tribe to 2½ games. New York has 11 games left to play and Cleveland 10.

Cards Drub Giants

Although shut out 4-0 by the Cincinnati Reds, the Dodgers were able to retain their three-game National League margin over the runnerup Giants when the third-place St. Louis Cardinals drubbed the New Yorkers, 14-4. The Braves, Giants and Cards each have 12 games left to play. The Cards trail the Dodgers by seven games and the Giants by four.

In other results, the Philadelphia Phillies swept a twin bill from Pittsburgh, 5-2 and 2-1; Boston's Braves and Chicago's Cubs divided a doubleheader, the Braves winning the opener 1-0, and the Cubs taking the second game 3-2, in 10 innings.

Philadelphia's Athletics took two from the St. Louis Browns, 10-5 and 2-1; Washington whipped the Detroit Tigers, 6-2; and Chicago's White Sox nipped the Boston Red Sox, 4-3 in 17 innings.

Cold Facts

Casey Stengel wouldn't call his Yankees "in" and Al Lopez wouldn't count his Indians "out," but the cold facts state plainly that if the Yankees win only six of their remaining 11, the Indians must win eight of 10 to tie.

Lopat and Reynolds limited the Indians to nine hits. Lopat was given credit for the victory. Mike Garcia, who hadn't been scored on in 30 innings, gave up four runs in the third inning during a four-hit barrage to be tagged with his 10th defeat. He has won 20.

A pair of rookies with less than a month of major league experience were the culprits in the defeats of the Dodgers and Giants. A grand slam homer by Jim Greenburg, the first homer of his big league career, accounted for his big Cincinnati runs as Herman Wehmeier stopped the Dodgers with six hits.

11-Run Explosion

An 11-run explosion in the fifth inning snapped a 3-3 tie and enabled the Cardinals to administer the defeat to Dave Koso, an old nemesis. Harvey Haddix, 26-year-old southpaw, on terminal leave from the Army, went the distance for the Cards, permitting only four hits.

Curt Simmons and Russ Meyer each racked up his 12th win of the year as the Phils came from behind to beat the Pirates twice.

MICHIGAN STATE AND MARYLAND TOP GRID POLL

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two colleges which aren't eligible for their conference championships this year are among the best bets to win sectional football honors this year.

They are Michigan State, a member of the Western Conference but not eligible to win the football title until 1953, and Maryland, serving a year's suspension from Southern Conference competition.

Those two, Georgia Tech and Oklahoma were the four institutions which dominated the Associated Press pre-season poll of newspaper and radio sports experts to pick the probable leaders in each section of the United States.

Penn In East

Michigan State was listed in the first spot, by 31 of 51 Midwestern selectors and, on the basis of five points for first place, three for second and one for third, polled a total of 171 points.

Notre Dame, picked first by two balloters, polled 42 points to lead the entirely independent Midwestern teams.

In Southern Conference territory, Maryland gathered 27 first place votes and 145 points. Second was Duke with four firsts and 56 points.

In the East, Pennsylvania led with 10 firsts and 58 points; Holy Cross got 4 and 32; Princeton 1 and 28, with the rest scattered widely.

The Hagerstown Braves set their sights today on a clean sweep in the Class B Interstate League.

The Braves, parlaying their pennant-winning with a four-game sweep of their semi-final playoff series with York, are now up on Lancaster's Red Roses in the final best-of-seven game Governor's Cup series.

Buck Riddle, who won the league's RBI crown, drove in the winning run in the ninth inning yesterday as the Braves edged the Red Roses, 4-3, in the opener of the final series.

Lancaster gained the finals by beating Allentown, 8-7, Saturday.

Eastern League

By The Associated Press
It will be sudden death tonight when the Binghamton Triplets and the Schenectady Blue Jays battle for the right to meet the Reading Indians in the Eastern League playoff finals.

The Triplets squared their best-of-seven series with the Blue Jays at three-all yesterday, while the Indians eliminated the pennant-winning Albany Senators from Governor's Cup play.

Binghamton beat Schenectady, 3-1, behind the clutch pitching of Mel Wright, Reading finished off the Senators, 9-6, on a seven-run outburst in the first inning. Albany won one game in the series.

WINS BIG CAR RACE

READING, Pa. (AP)—Ernie McCoy of Reading, led from start to finish as he streaked to triumph in the AAA big-car auto races here before 38,173 fans at the closing day of the 1952 Reading Fair.

McCoy's winning time in the 20-lap Reading Fair sweepstakes yesterday was 8:55.18.

WORLD SERIES MAY FIND TED IN KOREA AREA

By FRANK ECK

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite seven years on the ground—most of them hitting .350 against American League pitching—Ted Williams in four months has become a skilled, well-trained pilot of the F9F-5 Panther jet fighter plane.

That means that by World Series time Capt. Ted Williams of the Marines may be in Korea.

"The recent announcement that the reserve captain has been alerted for overseas duty this fall shows how well the big slugger has done during his refresher course," said a Marine Corps spokesman.

Noted for his ability aloft during World War II when he was chosen for instruction duties, Williams again is a first class pilot.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Pennsylvania College—Commencement: Our town is quite enlivened by the large influx of strangers in attendance upon the Commencement exercises of the College. We think the number of persons from abroad has never been as large.

This evening John Conrad, of Philadelphia, will address the Literary Societies. On Thursday (September 16) the Commencement Exercises will take place. The music for the occasion will be by the "Amateur Musical Association."

The degree of A.B. will be conferred upon seven young men; and the degree of A.M., in course, upon the graduating class of 1849.

The Old Market-house: It becomes our duty, as chroniclers of the "passing tidings of the times," to inform the readers that the beautiful Market-house, which has graced our Centre square for upwards of forty years, has at last yielded to Vandal hands, and the interesting and time-honored structure no longer gladdens the eye. For some time the young "progressive destructionists" had been picking at its pillars, and marring their fair proportions, and to such an extent had their Vandalism reached, that the Town Council deemed it expedient to cause its removal before entirely destroyed. It was disposed of at public auction, and the purchaser has taken it down—so that we are now minus a Market-house. We must remark that it is a decided improvement—and we shall have no longer ringing in our ears the constant exclamation of strangers, "Why do you not remove the nuisance?" It is gone—but few are found to shed tears over its destruction.

We observe that the Council have been engaged for some time in grading the streets, and making improvements therein. There is a very decided improvement in Baltimore street, and we think the Council deserves much credit for the efficiency they have exhibited in the discharge of their duty.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Local Items: Mrs. H. C. Peters employs about sixty people at his canning establishment in York Springs. The people of Bendersville have organized a singing class of 54 scholars, under the leadership of Mr. John E. Pitzer.

Miss Warren has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to resume charge of her school. She will commence work on Monday morning.

J. Bion Scott, of this place, has been chosen as assistant instructor in the academy of Prof. Shumaker at Chambersburg.

Admiral David D. Porter, of the United States Navy, and family, and Gen. S. P. Heintzelman are at the Springs Hotel. The Gettysburg Band serenaded them on Friday evening.

Republican County Convention: The Republican County Convention assembled in the Court-house on Monday and organized by appointing Cyrus G. Beales, President; Baltzer Snyder and Jacob G. McIlhenny, Vice Presidents; P. D. Hankey and W. A. Himes, Secretaries.

In the afternoon after the withdrawal of several names suggested at the morning session, the following nominations were made by acclamation, with the formality of a ballot.

District Attorney—W. H. Bailey.
Director of the Poor—Abraham Trostle.
County Surveyor—Joseph S. Gitt.
Coroner—Dr. R. B. Elderdice.

The Committee on resolutions made up of J. A. Kitzmiller, H. D. Scott, I. N. Durboraw, W. A. Pitzer and Charles S. Shaner recommended that Cyrus G. Beales and J. A. Kitzmiller be appointed Representative Delegates to the next Republican State Convention with power to substitute, if necessary.

The following County Committee was appointed—S. McC. Swope to act as chairman, and J. A. Kitzmiller and J. L. Hill, jr., as secretaries.

TAKE ME THERE

Wherever there are beauty, revelation—discoveries to be made, something new to be learned, something to feed my mind, spirit, and soul—take me there! There are to be found new life and a relaxation from toil, anxiety or worry. There are to be found things on which to happily meditate, there to get in tune with the Infinite.

Wherever children romp and play, where birds sing out their joy, where flowers bloom, give forth their life in color and grace, where trees bend and sway in musical melody, where clouds gather, form and re-form, and float noiselessly in the blue—take me there!

Where mountains climb and form their caps of snow, perpetual in the sunshine, where gardens nurture in the valleys and give out their love and sustenance to man, where the sea rolls to sandy shores, giving out its melody in continuous movement, soothing the heart and wiping out memories of sorrow and trouble—take me there!

Where people gather to seek entertainment and a relief from the cares of the day, where people went their way to houses of worship, there to give thanksgiving for all their manifold blessings, where there are friends who always welcome you and are sorry to have you leave, where congenial spirits gather to give and not to take, where there are to be found paths that lead you to the undiscovered gold in people's hearts—take me there!

To a place where wars are never known, where there are unity, harmony and understanding, where there are simplicity of life and a reverence for God and all his works and creations, be they small or great, where you can mine for the purest gems, without jealousy and a desire for material gain, where all days are good, each offering something to treasure—take me there!

To a quiet spot, where there are books, the product of men's and women's thinking and living, their stories, dreams, experiences, and philosophy—books that have stood the test of time and inspired the multitude—bookshops, places for meditation, and libraries—take me there!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "That-Tongue Of Yours."

Just Folks

THE ENDURING HEARTH
If song and laughter warm the place
And faith and love the table grace,
Who keep it so need have no fears.
The home will stand throughout the years.

Though small or large, if it will hold
The friends of both the young and old
And there is welcome for them all,
That home apart will never fall.

But drive the children off to play
And further they will later stray.
For sorry is that dwelling's fate
When love and pride give way to hate.

'Tis not from size or costly things
But from the heart endurance springs
And where the family ties hold fast
The home established long will last.

STEVENSON TO HIT DOUBTFUL EASTERN AREA

By REILMAN MORIN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson, mapping strategy on the basis of reports from his first campaign swing, prepared today to an assault on the Atlantic Seaboard, battling for four states that are considered "doubtful" in this election.

The Democratic presidential candidate opens his second major drive next Thursday.

His line of march takes him through Connecticut, into Massachusetts, New York, Maryland and Virginia.

New York "Safe"

Of the five, his managers consider New York "reasonably safe." They expect a grim fight in the others. The Democrats lost Maryland in 1948, possibly because of votes siphoned off by Henry Wallace's Progressive party. Political analysts in Connecticut believe the growth of industry there may have tipped the balance to the Democrats this time.

Although the schedule calls for a major speech in Springfield, Mass., Friday, Stevenson is reserving his big effort there for later in the campaign.

However, he will travel there by automobile, "klaxon stopping" in a number of Massachusetts cities en route.

Part of his purpose of this swing, as it was during the Western trip, will be simply to let people see him, make himself known, and soften up the territory for his bigger efforts later.

Reactions Not All Good
For that reason, his managers say, he did not attempt—except in a few of his appearances—to hammer the basic issues very hard in the West. A fast man with a phrase, Stevenson devoted at least half his time in the "whistle stops" between San Francisco and Los Angeles for example, simply to amusing his audiences with a flicking of a satirical whip at the Republicans.

The reactions to that were not all good. It was obvious, everywhere on the trip, that what the people want is a lambasting, rip-roaring, "give-'em-hell" type of approach. Whenever he approached, or seemed to approach, this kind of reference, there were violent crowd reactions.

Deferred Tuition Plan Is Adopted

NEW YORK (AP)—A special deferred payment plan for veterans of the Korean war and for other veterans entitled to educational benefits under the new G.I. Bill of Rights will be started in September at Columbia University's Teachers College, according to Dr. Milton C. Del Manzo, college provost. They may have up to two-thirds of their tuition deferred.

Under the deferred payment plan, if the year's tuition for a veteran is $600, he pays $200 in installments starting six months after he leaves college.

Gas Industry Sets Record Of Spending

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite pipe and materials shortages, the natural gas industry spent a record $1,461,599,999 for new facilities in 1951. This, say the American Gas Association, exceeded the previous peak established in 1950 by 22 per cent.

The association said the nation's gas distribution and pipeline industry expects to spend $5,699,000,000 during the next 4½ years for construction of new facilities and plant expansion.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—The number of infantile paralysis cases in the three county Central Pennsylvania area embracing Clinton, Centre and Lycoming Counties, mounted to 109 over the week end. Cpl. Stutts died at his home here Saturday after a long illness. Before being transferred to Squadron 2 of Troop D at Mansfield two years ago, he had served with Troop A at Harrisburg and nearby substations.

106 POLIO DEATHS

DES MOINES (AP)—The polio epidemic in Iowa and Nebraska, already the hardest hit states of any in the nation this year, continued to mount today.

Iowa counted an all-time high of 106 polio fatalities—16 more than the previous record of 90 in 1949. Nebraska had 56 such deaths and over 1,200 cases reported.

ARMY TRAINING PLANE FALLS IN ORCHARD; 3 DEAD

MATAWAN, N. J. (AP)—A military training plane nosedived into an apple orchard near here last night, killing at least three occupants.

A spokesman at Ft. Monmouth, where the LC126 plane had been assigned, said at least three persons were aboard, returning from Pittsburgh on an authorized flight.

The exact number on the four-passenger craft was not immediately known the spokesman said, but all occupants lost their lives.

Terrible Wreckage

Army officials and state police picked through the twisted wreckage throughout the night. The crash impact was so great, spokesmen said, that the wreckage "hardly resembled a plane" and the number of bodies could not immediately be determined.

No identifications have yet been made of the crash victims.

Debris was scattered over a wide area and parts of the wrecked craft were found several hundred yards from the crash scene.

An eyewitness said the plane flew so close to her home that it rattled dishes. Then, she said, it plunged into the orchard.

Planes assigned to Ft. Monmouth are based at Red Bank Airport and are part of the 9411th Technical Service Unit. The planes are used in conjunction with the post's signal school.

Two Are Killed In Two Accidents

WILKES BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Two automobile accidents resulted in the death of a 14-year-old boy and a 72-year-old man in nearby Plains Township.

Chester Yaskovsk, 14, of Wilkes Barre, was killed yesterday when the bicycle he was riding crashed into an automobile on the Du Pont Highway.

William Morey, of Truckville, died in General Hospital of chest injuries suffered when his automobile smashed into a house Saturday.

Girl, 5, Killed In Fall From Auto

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—A five-year-old Ypsilanti, Mich., girl was fatally injured when she fell from a moving auto on Rt. 11 near Northumberland.

Leah Tsikouris died at Sunbury Community Hospital yesterday several hours after the accident.

Police said the child opened the back door of a car being driven by John F. Sassman, Northumberland, and tumbled onto the highway. The girl and her mother were visiting friends in Northumberland.

BOY FATALLY INJURED
WAYNESBORO, Pa. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy hit by a car on Rt. 16, at nearby Shady Grove, died Saturday at Waynesboro Hospital.

Police said Harold E. Daugherty, Greencastle R. 3, had stopped by the roadside to allow a car to pass. He had been bicycle riding with a sister.

Dr. S. D. Shull, Franklin County coroner, announced he would hold an inquest in the death but did not immediately set a date.

CLASH BY NIGHT

Railroad Partner Is Held In Murder

NEW BLOOMFIELD, Pa. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad porter was in Perry County jail today in connection with the Aug. 23 death of L. N. Conklin of Des Moines, Ia. Cornelius Brown, 50, of Chicago, was held Saturday on an open charge in default of $2,500 bail after a preliminary hearing in nearby Newport. He was held for further investigation.

At the same time police released Jerome Anderson, 46, also a PRR porter from Chicago, for lack of evidence. Anderson was arrested in New York soon after Conklin's body was found along the PRR tracks near here. He apparently had fallen from a moving train which was taking him to New York for the American Legion convention.

WIDOW WINS WAR INSURANCE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The U. S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled that a soldier's widow has first claim on his war risk insurance benefits even though she remarries.

Two $5,000 government insurance policies issued to Harry R. Trathen who was killed in action April 12, 1945, were involved in the ruling. Mrs. Mary Trathen Kerrigan, of Girardville, Pa., who remarried six weeks after Trathen died, received payments from the Veterans Bureau.

Trathen's father, Stephen, sued

The Circuit Court reversed that decision, holding that "the status of a widow is not determined by her subsequent marital situation, but by her status as a person at the time of her husband's death."

MINISTER ACTS AS A WOMAN TO STEAL $23,000

AUBURN, Calif. (AP)—A fantastic $23,000 swindle in which a Presbyterian minister played the part of a woman was told by authorities here Saturday.

Dis. Atty. Al B. Broyer said the Rev. William C. McCalmont, 35, admitted masterminding the bliking of Joseph and Amelia Lemos, operators of a fruit stand at Loom near here.

Broyer said the pastor of the Roseville, Calif., Presbyterian Church declared he had to have money to pay an unnamed woman who had been blackmailing him for three years. The district attorney said the story would be investigated.

One Other Charged
Held with the moderator of the Sacramento Presbytery was Harry Daniels, 42, Roseville yardmaster for the Southern Pacific Railroad and a captain in the Placer County sheriff's aerial posse. Both men were charged with grand theft. Their bail was set at $5,000.

Broyer said the swindle took place Aug. 24 like this:
After McCalmont delivered his Sunday sermon, he and Daniels went to the Lemos' home. The minister, using his experience in amateur theatricals, wore a wig and women's clothes.

The two told Mrs. Lemos they were federal agents and had learned she and her husband kept a large amount of money in their home. They told her they would keep the hoard so investigators coming the next day would not find it.

Otherwise, they told her, her husband would get 10 years in prison.

Claims Blackmail
She gave them the money on assurance it would be returned the following night.

Dr. Carl R. Jackson, assistant superintendent of DeWitt State Hospital, said McCalmont told him the blackmail story in a two-hour interview yesterday. Three years ago, the minister said, a woman visited him in his study and when she left disarranged her clothes.

Another woman, McCalmont went on, saw her come out and the second woman has been extorting money from him since.

REPORT ALLIES HAVE 2 MILLION FIGHTING MEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department reported Saturday this country's European Allies now have more than two million men under arms compared with Russia's four million.

The figures were cited in a 5-6 page departmental report designed to answer inquiries from Congress and private citizens about progress made in building Europe's defenses under the 3-year-old North Atlantic Treaty.

Although indicating a relationship in the balance of East-West military power, the figures do not include other forces which fit into the overall picture.

Say Russia Has Bombs
Not mentioned in the total American strength of 3½ million men under arms, the armed manpower of friendly nations like Australia, Yugoslavia and Spain, or the armies of Russia's satellites and Red China.

The report also referred to Russian possession of the atomic bomb as a major element in Soviet power—a reference reflecting conviction among officials here that Russia has such a bomb, although not in quantities equal to America's.

The departmental survey of progress said that, aside from the men under arms in Western Europe and in Russia, millions more are in reserve and that Russia's strength includes 175 front line divisions "with 100 deployed in Soviet-occupied Europe."

Western Power Growing
The department cited the Soviet forces as evidence of why it considered the job of building up Western power far from completed.

The great current problem of the North Atlantic Treaty, the booklet said, is how to balance the security requirements of the North Atlantic powers against their capacity to arm, which is limited by their industrial and financial resources.

Kenley Players To Close This Week

The Kenley Players, York, will close the current summer stock season with their production "A Night at the Theatre" beginning tonight and playing through September 20th.

Peter Lorre co-stars with Miriam Hopkins in this play described by John Kenley as a "thriller" now showing prior to a Broadway run. Also in the cast is Ralph Clanton, Shakespearean actor and lecturer.

In addition to regular nightly performances during this farewell week, the players will offer their customary Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

BELMONT PARK BARN BURNS AND 23 HORSES DIE

BELMONT, N. Y. (AP)—Crackling flames swept through a Belmont Park barn last night on the eve of the famous race track's three-week fall meeting. Twenty-three valuable thoroughbred horses were burned to death. Another horse had to be destroyed.

Twenty-five horses were rescued, although the blaze engulfed the huge wooden structure in 15 minutes. Some of the rescued thoroughbreds also were injured.

Two nationally known horses stabled here for today's opening were among those saved. They were Primrose, Kentucky Derby hopeful of last season for the Starmount Stable, and Navy Page, a stake race winner who ran with the top 2-year-olds at the recent Saratoga meeting.

Cause Not Known
Some of the horses that died in the fire were listed by track officials as Greenboro, a 2-year-old owned by E. B. Benjamin of New Orleans; Devil's Spy, Wild Jamie, Buzzing Bee and Tocoli, all owned by Willie Knap; and Eraser, Big If, Ornament and Burladero, owned by J. T. Moloney.

Washburn, trained by Morris Dixon Jr., had to be destroyed. The value of the lost animals was estimated to be in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Cause of the fire was undetermined.

AFL CONCLAVE MAY GIVE NOD TO STEVENSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Delegates to the 71st annual AFL Convention gathered today to hear an opening-day address by President William Green, who has indicated the group will endorse Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson for president.

Decision on a presidential choice is expected to be made a week from tomorrow after the convention has heard addresses by Stevenson and his Republican opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. The general will talk Wednesday and Stevenson next Monday.

The 72nd convention delegates represent some eight million AFL members.

T-H Law Denounced
The AFL's Executive Council filed a report last night in which it denounced the Taft-Hartley Act as a "dismal failure" and called the wage-price control program unfair to labor.

Green made it clear at a pre-convention news conference that if the delegates decide on a presidential choice it will be largely—if not entirely—based on the candidates' views and their party platforms regarding the Taft-Hartley Act.

Stevenson and the Democratic platform advocate repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, and a new labor relations act. Eisenhower is against repeal, but has recommended revisions to improve the law without changing its "basic principles."

Would Set President
"This is bound to have an effect on the delegates," Green said. He added that they were waiting to "see what Eisenhower has to say."

If the AFL Convention formally endorses either candidate, it will be the first time in AFL history. The AFL in 1924 backed the late Sen. Robert M. La Follette, the Progressive candidate. But the action was taken by a special committee—not by a convention as a whole.

The AFL's committee to oust racketeers from the ranks of unions began an investigation yesterday into the operation of some New York locals which reportedly have ex-convicts as officers.

Littlestown GUEST SPEAKER FOR RALLY DAY

H. Vernon Ferster, Hanover, will be the guest speaker at the annual Rally Day service at Christ Reformed Church on Sunday, October 12, at 10 a.m., as announced at the Sunday morning worship service at Christ Church by the committee in charge of arrangements, composed of Mervin L. Myers, Mervin K. Myers, Orville C. Sentz, Paul E. Berwager, Clair R. Markle and Harold E. Shoemaker. In conjunction with the Rally Day service, Building Fund Day will be observed. All Sunday School classes and organizations plan to make contributions for this fund. The Consistory has suggested $800 as the financial goal for the day.

It was announced that Harvest Home will be observed at Christ Church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. As suggested by the Mercersburg Synod, the donations for the harvest display will be shared by the Hoffman Orphanage and Homewood Church Home, unless indicated by individuals. Jars to be filled for donations are available in the church vestibule. The Sunday School superintendent appointed the following to serve as a committee to arrange the display: Mr. and Mrs. David L. Messinger, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Sell, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin L. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Schwartz and Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Wildasin. The committee has asked that the donations be brought to the church by 10 o'clock next Sunday morning.

The Harvest Home collection will be used toward paying the church benevolence. Mrs. Orville C. Sentz requested that, as chairman of the Homewood Ladies' Auxiliary of the church, that all those wishing to renew their membership contact her. Membership dues are a dollar. The Homewood publication, "The Homewood Fireside," was distributed on Sunday. The anniversary of Homewood will be celebrated Saturday at 2 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Gerald W. Sterner, Donald L. Zepp, Mervin K. Myers and Elven L. Chronister Jr. served as ushers for the Sunday worship at Christ Church. The bulletin was presented in honor of Curvin C. Carbaugh, who observed his 70th birthday anniversary last Tuesday. The pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons, presented the morning message. Fred A. Warner served as organist. The pastor read a card of thanks from Miss Norma E. Miller, a member of Christ Church who now resides at Homewood, for the gifts and cards she received from her friends of the church in celebration of her birthday anniversary on Sept. 2. The Rev. Mr. Koons announced that the fall preparatory service will be held on Sunday, Sept. 28, at 10:30 a.m., and Holy Communion will be administered the following Sunday, Oct. 5, at 10:30 a.m.

Firemen Called
Volunteer members of the Alpha Fire Company No. 1 responded to a call with two trucks on Saturday morning about 8:45 a.m. to the home of Philip Zepp, Littlestown R. 2, but the blaze was extinguished upon arrival and their services were not needed. Only slight damage resulted from a blaze caused by a short circuit in the wiring.

Mrs. William G. Chambers and son, William Jr., Philadelphia, have returned home after visiting for several days with the former's son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. David S. Kammerer, West King St.

bringing cheer personally to some of these patients; gift boxes filled for children in foreign countries... these were some of the accomplishments of the school children working as members of the Junior Red Cross of Adams County Chapter in the 1951-52 school year.

Mrs. Luther Wisler, chapter chairman, reports that last year every classroom in the county—elementary, secondary, public, private and parochial—was enrolled. The County Junior Red Cross Council, composed of representatives from each high school, meets bimonthly at the different schools, with carefully planned programs to promote local and international service. Three officers of the council were sent to the Leadership Training Center at Hood College, Frederick, in June.

A project undertaken by many youngsters in local schools, Mrs. Wisler said, was that of making weekly visits to the County Home where they read to and entertained the residents. Another activity planned to promote international understanding was the international school correspondence program.

Within the next month, adult Red Cross volunteer visitors will start visiting the schools throughout the county where they will confer with the teachers, deliver this year's supplies, speak with the students, and launch the current year's enrollment campaign. Pennsylvania ranked high among the twelve top vacation states in 1951, according to the third nationwide vacation travel survey recently completed by the Research Department of The Curtis Publishing Company.

Vacationers named Pennsylvania as the destination of 4.8 per cent of all trips taken during the year. New York state accounted for 10.3 per cent, California 8.2 per cent, Florida 5.2 per cent, New Jersey 5.0 per cent and Michigan 4.9 per cent of all the destinations mentioned by vacationers. Texas, Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts, Virginia and Wisconsin, following in that order, accounted for the other six top states ranking highest as vacation destinations for the millions of families who took vacation trips.

Time magazine had a very interesting report last week on a religious gathering in Berlin. If more of the same kind of fellowship and tolerance that was demonstrated there was practiced throughout the world we wouldn't have half the trouble the world faces today. This is what Time reported:

Since the days of the Reformation, Berlin has been a Protestant stronghold, and often a place of bitter memory for Germany's Roman Catholics. Last week Catholics were again battling for their faith in Berlin, but not against the Protestants. The Katholikentag, the 75th official congress of German Catholics, found Catholics and Protestants solidly lined up against a common enemy: Communism.

Months before the Catholic congress, Catholic leaders had negotiated with the Communist rulers of East Germany to allow representatives of the 2,100,000 Roman Catholics living in East Germany free passage to Berlin. At the last minute the Reds, as usual, broke their promises. Sixty special trains scheduled to bring pilgrims to the congress were canceled. So were the arrangements to furnish temporary living quarters for visitors in 92 schools in the city's Eastern sector. Nevertheless, 100,000 Catholics from the Eastern zone struggled into the city on foot, on bicycles or crowded regular trains.

In the emergency, Berliners (88 per cent Protestant) rallied to help their fellow Christians. Berlin's famed Evangelical Bishop Otto Dibelius threw open the Marienkirche, the principal Protestant church in the city, to the Catholic meetings. He took Munich's Roman Catholic Archbishop Joseph Wendel as a guest in his own home. At open-air masses in the Waldbühne, Catholics worshiped before the

UMW POLICY COMMITTEE IN SESSION TODAY

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—With a possible coal strike only a week off, John L. Lewis summoned his 200-man Policy Committee today to map negotiating strategy.

The contract between the United Mine Workers union and the northern mine owners expires on Saturday, the first opportunity for the miners to stay away from work would be next Monday.

Lewis' union members traditionally won't work without a contract. However, agreements with Southern soft coal operators and with the Pennsylvania anthracite, or hard coal, owners extend until Sept. 30.

The UMW Policy Committee is the group Lewis usually consults when major union decisions are to be made. It always ratifies contracts before their terms are made generally known. It also helps draft strike plans.

Hard Coal Accord Near
John Bussarello of Pittsburgh, head of the union's District No. 3, said over the week end he knew of no soft coal settlement in the works, but felt the calling together of the Policy Committee was a hopeful sign.

It was reported that some progress has been made in the soft coal, or bituminous, industry peace talks, but not enough to assure an agreement before a strike could develop. However, both sides were described as seeking to avoid a shutdown.

Actually, an agreement was reported to be close in the anthracite industry. Representatives of the Eastern Pennsylvania hard coal operators are to see Lewis again tomorrow. A Lewis demand for a 20-cent boost in the present 30-cent royalty is the main issue.

Truck, Car Collide
Police said Leslie C. Marteney, York, was driving his truck north and wanted to make a left turn into a driveway leading to Cole's store. He saw a car approaching from the north and slowed down. George J. Miller, 48, of Railroad St., driving the Pitzer truck, cut out to go around, according to police, saw the other car, operated by Major Bailes, approaching and tried to turn into the Cole driveway. The truck and Bailes' car collided.

Damage to the truck was estimated at $90 and to the Bailes car at $250. No one was injured, police said.

Raymond Rosenberry, 47, of 37 Breckenridge St., escaped injury, but his automobile was badly damaged at 2:55 a.m. Sunday when it struck a steer owned by H. M. Smith, Gettysburg R. D.

Rosenberry was driving toward Gettysburg four miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd., when the steer ran in front of his car. The animal's legs were broken and it was destroyed. Damage to Rosenberry's car was estimated at $800.

Power Steering on the Roadmaster and Super

BENEATH that big broad bonnet is the reason for this headline.

It's a four-barreled automatic carburetor—Airpower by name—which has a way of gulping in what the dictionary defines as "a sudden blast of wind" when extra power is needed.

And the way this gorgeous performer can step out as this occurs is something you'll always remember.

For ordinary driving, two barrels are all you need—and two barrels are all that are working. They give you an extra thrifty flow of fuel for round-town cruising.

When extra power is wanted in a hurry—the "reserves" swing into action—feeding extra fuel and extra air in an ever-thrifty mixture, which delivers the greatest horsepower in Buick history.

This is one of many distinctions that endear ROADMASTERS to fine-car owners.

It's a car as rich in finish as it is in power—a car of expansive room—restful silence—level in gait—beautifully responsive to your mood and will.

Weekly Farm And Garden Section

To Spade Or Not To Spade Depends On These Factors

Whether your vegetable garden should be spaded this fall depends upon several factors. If the garden is on a slope where washing and erosion are to be feared, loss of fertility may result and fall spading does more harm than good.

It does not take much of a slope to cause serious washing during the winter in a cultivated garden; and it will pay to guard against it, wherever there is sufficient difference in level to cause heavy rains, or water from melting snows to run off quickly.

Heavy soils, not subject to serious erosion, benefit from fall spading, because the frost action during the winter breaks down the clods. But such soils should be spaded again the spring, and if only one turning is to be given them, it is better to wait until spring.

The importance of contour plowing on sloping garden is much stressed by farm advisers. This means running furrows at right angles to the slope, rather than up and down it. The effect is to check washing, and hold water in the depressions between furrows. The same effect can be produced in spading a garden which is on sloping ground and which must be spaded this fall. Run the trenches which you open with the spade, at right angles to the slope, and leave ridges and hollows which will check the flow of water.

Other Advice For Fall

The practice of sowing rye on gardens to be turned under in the spring is good, but the benefit to be derived from the crop depends upon the length of time it has to grow. For best results it must be sown in the early fall, and fertilized with at least two pounds of plant food for 100 square feet. The amount of organic matter added to the soil is relatively small, so that it is seldom worthwhile to disturb producing crops in order to sow this cover crop early.

Where a heavy turf is to be prepared for gardening next spring, it is best to spade it under this fall; since in the spring it would make planting and cultivation so difficult. Fresh manure is best applied in the fall and spaded under; together with any considerable quantity of plant debris which it is desired to use.

Pulverized limestone is best spaded under in the fall; it not only corrects soil acidity but makes heavy soils more porous. For this purpose cinders, torpedo sand, and ashes are also useful, and best applied in the fall.

While not as important in the fall as in the spring, the rule that soil should not be spaded when it is wet should be observed. When a handful molded into a ball and flattened between the palms crumbles instead of making a mud pie, it is a sign that the soil will break up easily when spaded instead of forming hard clods which will take a long time to crumble.

Black Snow Falls On Town's Streets

WORTHINGTON, Minn. (AP) — A jet-black "snow" covered more than a block of this town while dumbfounded residents watched with amazement.

They later learned the "snow" actually was soot, blown from a 245-foot chimney at a power plant. A strong wind came up, whipping the oily mass around the block. Buildings were blackened, along with streets, walks and yards. Residents were told to clean up the mess and send the city their bill for the work.

CONTROLLING FIELD MICE

The lowly field mouse about which the Scotch poet, Robert Burns, wrote his well known verses is seldom considered enemies. It is a major agricultural enemy. It is passively accepted as a small animal that is seen occasionally in field shocks of grain or encountered at random in heaps of waste vegetation. Yet this foe takes a toll reaching into many millions of dollars annually. Few plants are immune to its attacks, from flowering bulbs in the lawn or garden to forest trees.

Much of the damage caused by field mice is blamed on wild rabbits. This was recently demonstrated by a Pennsylvania woman who wrote the editor to complain about rabbits which she stated damaged over a hundred young pine trees she had set out to serve as a wind break and property line screen. Investigation revealed that field mice were the culprits and that they had extended their ravages into the home grounds where they had seriously damaged several ornamental shrubs.

Field mice feed chiefly on the bark of trees and shrubs, usually in winter when snow covers the ground and their normal sources of food are curtailed. Perhaps in most cases they prefer the bark of young apple trees, although they will gnaw almost all fruit trees with the exception of cherry trees. Shade and forest trees are often damaged, including most evergreens. Too, there are unrelenting occasions when these animals destroy bulbs and tubers of ornamental plants, in which cases the ravages are usually attributed to ground moles.

Eradicating mice shelters of weed and brush heaps, especially in and near young orchards or plantings of other young trees, will reduce the number of surviving mice. Cleaning away cover crop plants in a three-foot circle around fruit trees in late fall is beneficial. Spading loosely around trees before winter breaks up many mouse runways.

Benefits have been obtained from various chemical washes applied as repellents on tree trunks. Most of these have the added merits of reducing damages by bark-gnawing rabbits. Lime-sulphur, the same strength used for dormant spraying, has been employed to protect trees from mice and rabbits. The addition of glue prolongs the effectiveness of such washes. Usually applications every three or four weeks are advisable when snow covers the ground.

In many instances valuable fruit trees may be protected from all rodents by encasing the trunks in fine-mesh woven wire or screen. Heavy paper serves likewise in this role. Occasionally readers report that mice climb the protectors to feed on bark above the barriers.

Trappings is always an effective method of combat. Ordinary small flapper-type traps are recommended, baited with rolled oats and carefully set in runways and beneath loose litter near trees mice are attacking. Frequent inspections and fresh baiting are necessary.

Poisoning is perhaps the most effective wholesale means of warfare on field mice. But extreme care is urgent to safe guard friendly birds, skunks and other forms of life which the farmer must protect. The editor will be glad to furnish interested readers full details about now to prepare and distribute baits with such safeguards. Please enclose a stamped, addressed envelope when writing him for this information.

IT'S TIME TO PLANT HYACINTHS

Too late planting and use of inferior bulbs are perhaps the most common causes of failure or mediocre success in growing the beautiful and fragrant hyacinth. Here is an early spring flower universally admired by growers and passersby. It is extremely hardy and easy to grow. Yet, it is found in relatively few gardens and home grounds and then only in scattered numbers of puny specimens. Truly, hyacinths merit more prominent use in gardening plans and practices.

Like daffodils, hyacinth bulbs must be planted early enough to enable them to make substantial root growth before winter. This is a major key to successful culture of this flower. In most cases bulbs should be planted as soon as they are available in early September, although they may be planted later, even into mid-October, if supplies of bulbs are delayed. But the importance of early planting may be realized by knowing the fact that the plants make few extensions of their roots in the spring. Then they invest their strength chiefly in top growth. Pre-winter is, therefore, the period when hyacinths should make most of their root growth.

Of course, cheap hyacinth bulbs usually produce "cheap" blooms. Vigorous bulbs are recommended. Because this plant sends its roots 12 to 16 inches downward in search of moisture and nourishment, planting in hard or shallow soils is largely a waste of time, money and labor. The soil must be deeply mellow. One of the better ways to insure such deep mellowness is to spade under to a depth of at least 18 to 20 inches enough rich fence row loam to correct all present soil defects. This is easily done by removing the rich top loam and piling it aside. Then fertile soil brought in is worked into the lower level to a depth of 12 to 15 inches. Pulverized cattle manure (dry) from where it has thoroughly weathered in a summer pasture may be used in the lower or rooting stratum. This should be done so the bulbs do not come into direct contact with the manure.

Drainage must be good. The water table should remain below the bulbs. In many instances valuable fruit trees may be protected from all rodents by encasing the trunks in fine-mesh woven wire or screen. Heavy paper serves likewise in this role. Occasionally readers report that mice climb the protectors to feed on bark above the barriers.

Drainage must be good. The water table should remain below the bulbs.

deepest roots over winter. In preparing the soil it is necessary to avoid the creation of an undrainable "pocket."

Hyacinths prefer a neutral or alkaline soil reaction. If there are any doubts on this point, apply lime before planting time.

Many experienced growers work some bone meal into the top soil at the time of preparation and then water the worked-over soil liberally to settle it at the same time the fertilizer is rendered soluble before bulbs are planted.

Sand under and around each bulb aids greatly in reducing danger of over-wintering from excessive moisture.

Bulbs should be covered 6 inches deep, with measurement from the tip. By removing the top soil and setting bulbs at a common level before covering them, uniform depth of covering is attained and this promotes flowering at the same time.

Bulbs may be left in the ground a second year or taken up and stored after the tops die back naturally.

To force hyacinths indoors, bulbs must be potted 12 weeks for developing roots before top growth and flowers can be forced. An indoor temperature range in the middle 60's is recommended during the blooming stage for indoor hyacinths. A dark cellar or shaded coldframe is an excellent place to store potted bulbs during the root-forming period.

TASKS SEPTEMBER BRINGS
Feed established lawns with a complete commercial fertilizer and water it into the soil at once.

Allow popcorn to mature fully on the stalk before harvesting the ears to hang them in a well ventilated shed or room to dry.

Cultivate roses lightly and gather and burn fallen leaves and other rose litter likely to harbor fungous dangers.

Make a sowing of turnip seed to grow a late crop of greens.

Cut back all stubs left carelessly on shade or fruit trees.

Plant nursery roots or clump divisions of daylilies.

Keep winter squash plantings free from weeds and grass so squashes may mature fully on the vine before storing them.

Rat-proof the poultry house and make other necessary repairs to safeguard the laying flock and render hens comfortable.

Plant new peony roots or divide old crowding clumps near the middle of the month.

Daffodil bulbs should be planted as soon as they are available.

Pot daffodils at once to have indoor blooms for Christmas.

There is still time to prevent late weeds from maturing their dangerous crops of seed.

Sow winter rye as early as possible for soil cover and green manure.

Mid-September is not too late to plant bulbs of the beautiful Madonna lily.

Sow lawn seed for building new lawns or repairing old lawns.

Order paradichlorobenzene or ethylene dichloride for treating borer-infested peach trees in late September.

Rhododendrons and most of the so-called conifer evergreens may be safely planted before the end of the month.

Dig and store gladiolus corms as soon as the tops die back.

Harvest, shell and store beans for food and seed purposes soon after they ripen. The longer they remain in the plants the more likely they are to suffer from storage weevils.

Turn late varieties of drop and sound cull apples into sweet cider for all-winter consumption.

Order forsythia, lilac and other early-flowering shrubs for October delivery and planting.

Turn under deeply or chop finely all sweet corn stalks to destroy European borer larvae.

Plant hyacinth bulbs as early as they are procurable from local dealers.

Plan plenty of coldframe space for fall and winter use. Leafing varieties of lettuce should be seeded in coldframes now.

Make sauerkraut. Here is an economical way to store cabbage and have a nourishing food for winter.

Buy small gardenia plants for indoor culture over winter.

Enlist neighbors in an early fall rat extermination campaign.

Plant lily-of-the-valley pips or divisions from old beds.

Prepare sites early for spring plantings of raspberries, blackberries, dewberries, blueberries and rhubarb.

It is not too early to prepare soil for asparagus. Roots must be planted in early spring but soil preparation is a fall task.

Sneezing poultry usually means early fall flock culls. Guard against this contagion.

Write the editor whenever any September questions arise. Merely enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for a personal reply.

MID-ATLANTIC STATES SEEM TO FAVOR IKE

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of five stories on the political situation as of now, as seen by newspaper editors and political writers in all 48 states.)

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Five politically potent Middle Atlantic states—New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware—are expected by editors and political writers at this stage of the campaign to go narrowly Republican in November as they did in 1948.

An Associated Press survey, based on county-by-county and section-by-section estimates of editors and correspondents, indicates there is a composite belief that if the election were run off now, Republican presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower would roll up bigger margins of victory in most of these states than Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York did four years ago.

Even so, the margins still are so slender that two of the states—Maryland and Delaware—must be considered doubtful, although they are regarded as tilting toward the GOP at this point.

Campaign developments between now and election day could upset present calculations as to winning margins and easily toss any of these states to the Democratic nominee, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

The 105 electoral ballots of the five states are a prize political package. They represent nearly one fifth of the total of 531 and almost two fifths of the 266 electoral votes needed to win the election.

The political soundings in this survey, and those to follow for other states, are being taken through the co-operation of Associated Press member newspapers and radio stations, other newspapers and local correspondents.

Plan Later Check

On the basis of talks with voters, research, their own knowledge of their counties, actual polls wherever possible, they were requested to estimate the percentage of the vote individual counties will cast for Eisenhower and Stevenson.

These estimates were weighted to take into account the difference in voting strength among counties, then combined into state estimates. The surveys were undertaken in late August or early September. Another state-by-state survey is planned for October.

Bread and pastry keep well when they are stored in the refrigerator. All leftover cooked foods should be refrigerated as soon as they are removed from the dining table.

Pirates Salvaging Ships Sunk In War

MANILA (AP)—Scrap iron pirates are looting the naval graveyards of ships sunk off the Philippines in World War II. Senator Carlos P. Garcia wants the army to investigate. He says the government is losing money it hoped to realize from the sale of the hulls.

The pirates are reported particularly active off the coasts of Samar and Leyte, where some of the bitterest naval engagements of the war were fought.

An estimated 500 Japanese ships lie at various depths in Philippine waters. It is believed that from 500,000 to 700,000 tons of scrap can be salvaged from the sunken ships.

HONG KONG (AP)—Independent press reports say Communist authorities in Canton are shipping intellectuals among their political prisoners to slave camps in the remote provinces of Northwest China.

These reports say the Communists fear the intellectuals' influence over other prisoners in Canton jails.

NEW RECORD IS ANTICIPATED IN REGISTRATIONS

HARRISBURG — An indicated record high in Pennsylvania voting registration spurred statewide candidates of both parties today as they set out for grass root campaigning.

When registration books closed Saturday in all 67 counties, the all-time high of 5,014,710 registered voters set in 1940 seemed almost certain to be surpassed. Accurate statewide figures won't be available until the end of the month.

Record enrollments were included in many of the counties, including Philadelphia, Allegheny, Erie, and Luzerne.

Each party's caravan of candidates for U. S. Senator, state Supreme Court justice, auditor general and state treasurer will spend most of the week wooing Western Pennsylvania voters.

Both Parties Active

The Republicans start out today with lunch in State College and dinner in Meadville while the Democrats spend the day in Philadelphia before beginning the western swing.

Meanwhile, the Republicans opened a new statewide campaign headquarters here in the Penn Harris Hotel. State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor also appointed three aides for the campaign.

They are Arthur G. Burgoyne, deputy revenue secretary, as Taylor's assistant; J. Hugh McNeill, Forest and Waters Department publicity director, to handle itinerary plans, and Martin H. Brackbill, Internal Affairs Department publicity, to handle campaign publicity.

Taylor issued a statement here yesterday picturing Gov. Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, as "a man who went to bat for Alger Hiss."

He noted that Stevenson has declared the Democrats "have driven Communists out of the places of responsibility."

"That is really something coming from a one-time friend and associate of Alger Hiss," Taylor said. "I never thought I would see the day when the Democrats would claim credit for what Sen. Richard M. Nixon, our candidate for vice president, and other Republicans in Congress have done."

An example of the keen interest in the Nov. 4 General Election was demonstrated when 122,402 new voters — almost one-half the figure needed for a new state high — registered in Allegheny County since the April 22 primary.

A total of 4,888 jammed registration offices in Philadelphia Saturday to swell the citywide figure to a record 1,152,397. The previous high was 1,050,417 in 1948.

Candidates' Itineraries

The unofficial count for Dauphin County, including Harrisburg, was 106,000. That would top the previous high of 101,688 recorded in 1940. Luzerne County's total was expected to well exceed the 1950 total of 190,000.

The itineraries for the statewide candidates for the rest of the week includes:

Democrats—Tuesday, Forest and Warren Counties; Wednesday, Clearfield, DuBois and Curwensville in Clearfield County; Thursday, Indiana County and Pittsburgh; Friday, Greene County; Saturday, Young Republican regional conference at Johnstown.

Republicans—Tuesday, Erie and Ridgway, Elk County; Wednesday, Indiana and Pittsburgh; Thursday, Allegheny County Council of Republican Women meeting at Pittsburgh; Friday, tour of Beaver County with dinner meeting in Beaver Falls; Saturday, annual picnic of Armstrong County Republicans at Kittanning.

Immediately before the cattle sale, Mr. McCullough will sell 12 purebred Hampshire ewes; 6 registered ram lambs; 1 2-unit Universal milking machine; 1 8-can Mc-D milk cooler; 16 milk cans; strainers, buckets, etc.

Sale managed by: Pa. Guernsey Breeders' Ass'n. For catalogs write: P. O. Box 491, Harrisburg, Pa.

Tallest Building Is Weatherproofed

NEW YORK — The Empire State Building is being weatherproofed again. Maintenance men say rain, frost and heat crack the cement in joints of the world's tallest building as they do in most other buildings.

In the 21 years the building has stood, they have been over it three times, replacing cement and calking material where weather has damaged it. Work will be done this time from the ground to the 104th story.

TAFT DELIVERS FIRST ADDRESS ON WEDNESDAY

By The Associated Press

The first of several nationwide broadcasts by Sen. Robert A. Taft on behalf of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be made at 9 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, Wednesday over NBC.

EISENHOWER TO ANSWER SATIRE BY STEVENSON FOR RALLY DAY

By JACK BELL

Aboard Eisenhower Special, En Route Indiana (P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower comes up today with his first answer to the satire directed at the Republicans by Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

The answer, in the words of Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, top Eisenhower adviser, is:

"The campaign to elect the next president of the United States is no laughing matter, to be handled lightly with quips and puns."

Eisenhower, the Republican nominee, thus sought to turn against Stevenson the tone with which the Democratic candidate pointedly has jabbed at the general and the party back of him.

To Present Issues

In a series of whistle stop appearances in Indiana, the general prepared to pose political issues and inquire of his listeners if any of these is "a laughing matter."

The train's first scheduled stop was Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Adams said in a statement that Eisenhower himself "will continue to present honestly, simply but thoroughly to the American people the issues and problems that confront them at these critical times."

3-Pronged Attack

This presentation was expected to take the form, in the 12-day, 12-state train tour on which he has embarked, of a three-pronged attack on Democrats on the issues of Korea, corruption and communism.

In his current swing, Eisenhower is going into nine states which President Truman carried four years ago. They are Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia, North Carolina and Virginia.

He will visit three states which went for Dewey—Indiana, Nebraska and Maryland.

Morse Won't Help

As Eisenhower's 18-car special train rolled into the area where Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio got strong re-convention support in his losing battle for the GOP nomination, the general's aides met with silence a threatened defection by Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon Republican. Morse, who previously had offered to campaign vigorously for the general, said in Washington he will sit this one out. He indicated he doesn't like Eisenhower's agreement with many of Taft's views.

Three young convicts, escapees from the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., were being sought after they held captive a family of seven near Philadelphia for 19 hours. From left are: Ballard French Nolen, 22, and Joseph Nolen, 28, his brother, both of Harlan County, Kentucky, and Elmer Schuer, 21, of Chicago. The convicts have been identified as the three who held up a diner near Reading, Pa., and also robbed a sports store of guns and ammunition.

NO SURE CLUES ON 3 FUGITIVES IN THREE DAYS

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (P)—Without a single positive clue for nearly 72 hours, police officials clung stubbornly today to the belief that three fugitive bank robbers, target of Pennsylvania's greatest manhunt in years, still might be holed up somewhere near this northeastern industrial city.

They acknowledged, however, a growing possibility that the men had slipped away.

State police, FBI men and local officers, all heavily armed, were cautiously on the lookout for the three who have been described officially as "desperate and vicious." Roadblocks and patrols covered main and rural roads over an area hundreds of miles square.

No Sure Tips

"There is nothing to indicate the fugitives have gotten out of this area," said Arthur Cornelius, agent-in-charge of the Philadelphia FBI office.

He disclosed that additional G-men were summoned here yesterday after one "hot tip" that the men had been seen near Pen-Mar, Pa., 120 miles to the south, apparently was canceled by a fruitless search.

Officers got a steady trickle of reports that one or more of the men had been seen. Every one was given a quick and thorough check. But state police admitted that the last time they were certain the fugitives had been seen was about 10 a.m. Friday at near Guthrie.

Officers said they were confident that the three men had not gotten the stolen car in which they were riding past the many roadblocks thrown up about that time. But the two-tone Pontiac sedan hadn't been sighted and officers said it was possible the men might have obtained another car, or cars.

Five autos have been reported stolen within a 100-mile radius of here within 48 hours. One which was being sought particularly was a maroon 1950 Studebaker sedan taken from an Allentown street early Saturday.

The fugitives are Joseph Nolen, 26, and his brother Ballard, 22, both of Harlan County, Ky., and Elmer Schuer, 21, of Chicago. All were serving long terms for bank robbery when they fled the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., early Wednesday.

Since then they have stolen at least four cars; knifed one man; looted a West Reading, Pa., sporting goods store of six shotguns and a quantity of ammunition; held a family of seven captive for 19 hours while they ate and rested, and obtained $240 in the holdup of a roadside diner at Hamburg, Pa.

Most of the week end, excitement was centered around Pen Mar, in southern Adams County below Waynesboro, almost directly on the Mason-Dixon line.

Residents of that community of 500 reported that two men came to a small general store to buy food Friday afternoon. Saturday, the incident was reported to Maryland state police who produced FBI circulars. From these pictures the men were "identified" as the Nolen brothers.

Saturday afternoon an officer in a police cruiser flushed two men whom he saw run along the Western Maryland Railroad tracks and disappear in the bushes.

A small army of police, FBI men and armed residents of the area was rallied quickly, kept watch all night and searched the area yesterday. Later Capt. Charles W. Magaha of the Maryland state police called off the hunt, telling newsmen that "after intensive searching we have been unable to find anything that would indicate the three men were ever in the area."
